

It is really quite simple. If people don't want to be called on their phone-- then they should have the RIGHT not to be called on their phone. Tell the banks to get more creative in their marketing plans. Do it NOW.